Voter Registration Information

Registering to vote is simple and free. For anyone who is not registered to vote, they can get a registration form online at www.sos.ca.gov. They are also available at most post offices, libraries, city and county offices, and the Secretary of State's office. Below is a sample of the state and federal voter registration forms.

To register to vote you must be a U.S. citizen, a California resident, at least 18 years of age on Election Day, and not in prison or on parole for the conviction of a felony.

To request a voter registration form or to find out if you are registered to vote, just call your county elections office or the Secretary of State's toll-free Voter Hotline at 1-800-345-VOTE, or visit www.sos.ca.gov.

- · A U.S. citizen
- At least 18 years of age
- Not in prison or on parole for the conviction of a felony

How to register to vote

You can get a voter registration card at any of the following places:

- Online at www.sos.ca.gov
- The Secretary of State's Office
- · County and city elections offices
- Most libraries
- Most post offices

To vote in the November 4, 2008, General Election, your completed registration card must be either:

- Postmarked by Monday, October 20, 2008
- Delivered to a county elections office by Monday, October 20, 2008
- Delivered to any voter registration agency, such as the Department of Motor Vehicles, by Monday, October 20, 2008.

Information required to register to vote

To complete your registration you will provide your:

- Full legal name
- Home address
- Date of birth
- Signature
- Driver license number or last 4 digits of your Social Security number if you are voting for the first time in a federal election

Identification requirements to register to vote

- A valid California driver license number or California ID number
- Social Security number

If you do not have a valid California driver license number or California ID number, or a Social Security number, the state will assign you a unique number. You may be required to show identification when you vote. If you do not have a California driver license, ID number, or a Social Security number, and you are registering by mail, you must provide a copy of one of the following:

- Valid photo ID
- · A paycheck stub
- Utility bill

- A government document
- Proof of eligibility under the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Act (UOCAVA)

Selecting a political party

You may select a political party when you register, but doing so is not required.

If you check the box indicating that you do not want to register with a political party, you may not be able to vote for some parties' candidates in primary elections.

Updating your voter registration

Once you have registered, you are responsible for keeping your information up-to-date. You can do this by completing and returning the voter registration card with new information.

You should update your registration if you do any of the following:

- · Change your home address
- · Change your mailing address
- Change your name
- · Want to change or select a political party

Election Info From A to Z: Registered voters will automatically receive the Secretary of State's Official Voter Information Guide in the mail a few weeks before Election Day. This nonpartisan guide has details on state ballot measures, including text of proposed laws, statements from supporters and opponents of ballot measures, impartial analyses of the proposed laws and potential costs to taxpayers, and other useful election information.

Registered voters also will receive sample ballots in the mail from their county elections offices. Your sample ballot will include information on local candidates and measures, if there are any, as well as the location of your polling place and an application for a vote-by-mail ballot.

For more information about how and where to vote, as well as other ways you can participate in the electoral process or get free copies of voter registration cards or voter information guides, call the Secretary of State's toll free Voter Hotline at 1-800-345-VOTE or visit www.sos.ca.gov.

Vote By Mail: The last day to request a vote-by-mail ballot for the November 4, 2008, General Election is October 28.

Any registered voter can vote by mail in California. To vote by mail, you must apply to your county elections office for a vote-by-mail ballot at least seven days before Election Day to be eligible to vote by mail in that election. Use the form on the sample ballot booklet you receive in the mail a few weeks before Election Day to apply for a vote-by-mail ballot, or send your request in writing to your county elections office.

You may return your voted ballot by mail, or hand-deliver it to your county elections office or any polling place in your county. In any case, your vote-by-mail must be received by elections officials before the polls close at 8:00 p.m. on Election Day.

Polls are open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Election Day.
